

Phoenix Campus Intern

Phoenix, AZ: The Phoenix area has nearly 20,000 international students studying at Arizona State University (ASU) and a variety of community colleges. By serving in a one-year internship commitment, individuals will help ISI team members in the development of campus ministries as well as outreach to international students with Christ's love.

Organizational Objective:

To give every international student on the campus an opportunity to hear and respond to the Gospel, and to disciple them in their faith to prepare them for future ministry.

Reports to: Campus Director, City/Area/County Director, or Regional Field Director in absence of local leadership

Supervises: None

What are we looking for in an intern?

Spiritual Qualifications:

- Is a person of prayer
- Is a person of spiritual maturity
- Has a teachable spirit
- Is committed to personal spiritual growth
- Adheres to ISI's Statement of Faith, Mission/Vision Statement, Moral Conduct Policy and Code of Ethics/Approach to Ministry to International Students.

Educational/Experience Qualifications:

- Current college/university student or recent graduate (within one year)
- Clear evidence of a lifestyle of evangelism and discipleship activities

Other Characteristics:

- Has a heart for the spiritually lost
- Enjoys encouraging and helping others
- Has discernment and strong interpersonal skills
- Is faithful, loyal and dedicated to both the field staff and to ISI's national identity and mandate from the Lord to reach all international students for Christ
- Exhibits a positive, professional manner
- Committed to evangelism and discipleship
- Willing to raise personal financial support
- Strong defender of confidentiality

- Respectful of authority structures
- Ability to work under stress
- Team Player
- Flexible.

What would an intern do?

Responsibilities/Standards:

- Support the implementation of ISI's national strategic plan on their campus(es) and learn how to develop/implement a complementary campus ministry plan
- Become involved in all aspects of direct ISI ministry to international students and their families, as agreed:
  - Build relationships with international students, sharing Christ's love with them
  - Conduct, coordinate, or participate in student-oriented activities, bible studies, and conversational English classes
  - Disciple students, helping those with leadership potential to be prepared to in turn disciple others in their homelands
- Come alongside volunteers and learn how to coordinate an effective volunteer team
- Gain understanding regarding building and maintain positive relationships with university administrators and faculty
- Learn how ministry finances operate as well as proven fundraising methods
- Assist in maintaining information and reporting systems regarding campus ministry and returnees
- Other duties as assigned.*

*ISI authorizes staff to perform various ministry functions including, but not limited to, leading bible studies and international student fellowships, praying, planning, directing, and/or supervision the ministry activities of team members, and planning/developing the content of religious activities or other events with students and ISI participants. When appropriate, staff may preach and teach the Word of God and perform sacerdotal duties, such as officiating for baptisms, weddings, funerals, and administering Holy Communion.

Role Options: Full-time (ideal) or part-time

NOTE: ISI staff positions are fund-raising positions for part or full-time salary.

For more information, please contact:

Teri Crowell/City Director— <mailto:tcrowell@isionline.org>